Instructions to the Department:

Please forward the results of the examination, using this form, to the Division of Graduate Studies.

In order to Advance to Candidacy, a student who has passed the Qualifying Examination must have a Dissertation Reading Committee approved by the Department and the Dean of Graduate Studies. The student must have no incomplete grades (I) on her/his record. In addition, a language requirement must be satisfied (depending on department requirements). The $90 Advancement to Candidacy fee will be billed to the student's AIS account. The student will be officially advanced the following term after all of these requirements are met.
